

DIGITAL MUSIC DATABASE

WHICH GENRE IS THE MOST EXPENSIVE PER ALBUM PURCHASE?

Here there is comparison of most expensive genres.

This was determined by finding price per track and then per album which was then averaged per genre in which albums were categorized.

The most expensive genre is comedy, with next most expensive genre drama, the least expensive genre is opera and classical.

WHICH GENRE HAS ON AVERAGE THE MOST MINUTES PER ALBUM?

Here we can see which genre has on average the most minutes.

The longest is the Sci-fi and Fantasy genre, with on average 8087 minutes, the shortest genre is the Rock and Roll with only 373 minutes.

In graph we can notice that only a few genres have staggering number of minutes, most of the genres have much less than top five genres.

WHICH SALES SUPPORT PERSON HAS THE MOST CUSTOMERS?

Each customer which have collaborated with this company has one sales support person.

The most customers has employee Peacock with 21 customers, the least customers has employee Johnson with only 18 customers.

However distributions of customers per sales support person is quite evenly spread.

Customers per sales support person

WHICH ARTISTS HAVE THE MOST ALBUMS?

Here we can see artist which created in the most albums in their career which are presented in the database.

As we wanted to see just the highest numbers, it is presented only the top five artist with the most albums which they created.

The the most albums were created by Iron Maiden with number of 21, on second place is Led Zeppelin with 14 albums.

